Horizon Nominated as a '2023 Best Places to Work' by Lynchburg Business Magazine

Lynchburg, VA – Horizon Behavioral Health has been selected by Lynchburg Business Magazine as a '2023 Best Places to Work' organization.

Each year, employees across the City of Lynchburg are given the opportunity to nominate their places of work for the “Best Places to Work” contest hosted by Lynchburg Business Magazine. This competition recognizes and honors companies that deliver a true commitment to their employees by advancing operational ideals and promoting productive environments.

Today, Horizon proudly employs approximately 500 employees, occupying an array of positions from entry level to executive level, serving in a variety of capacities from administrative to clinical in nature. Horizon's guiding principles propel a richly rewarding work environment by serving the community with respect, excellence, integrity, teamwork, and confidentiality. Under a united vision, the teams at Horizon have served approximately 8,400 adults and 3,300 children, enrolled nearly 9,000 individuals into treatment services and engaged nearly 7,000 individuals with prevention services in fiscal year 2023.

Melissa Lucy, Horizon's Chief Executive Officer, states “As we celebrate our 54th anniversary this year, we are honored to be voted as one of the ‘Best Places to Work’ in Lynchburg, Virginia. Our work is meaningful to us because we love the community we serve, and we are proud of the care we provide.”
